

Chief Daniel Hahn was sworn in as Roseville's 15th Chief of Police in March of 2011. Chief Hahn was born and raised in the Oak Park neighborhood of Sacramento. Although he was arrested for assaulting an officer when he was 16 years old, he was hired by the Sacramento Police Department two years later where he served for 23 years attaining the rank of Captain. He served in numerous assignments in the police department, including Public Information Officer, High School Criminal Justice Academy Coordinator, Watch Commander, Special Investigations Commander, Patrol Commander and Personnel Division Commander.

Chief Hahn holds a Bachelors degree in Business Administration from Sacramento State University and a Masters of Public Administration from National University. He is also a graduate of the FBI National Academy, P.O.S.T. Command College and the Sierra Health Foundation Leadership Program.

Over his career, Chief Hahn has been honored to receive many awards. He is a member of numerous organizations such as California Chief's of Police Association. He also volunteers his time on numerous boards throughout the region. Chief Hahn believes by working in true partnership with the community, we will ensure our community remains a great city to live, work and play. He also believes we can all achieve our dreams through hard work and dedication.